SENATE BILL NO. 2116

1 AN ACT TO ADDRESS THE APPLICATION OF FOREIGN LAWS IN JUDICIAL 2 PROCEEDINGS IN THIS STATE; TO PROVIDE LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS; TO 3 DEFINE CERTAIN TERMS; TO PROHIBIT THE USE AND ENFORCEMENT OF 4 FOREIGN LAWS UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES; TO PROVIDE FOR 5 APPLICABILITY IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES; AND FOR RELATED PURPOSES.

6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

7 SECTION 1. The Legislature finds that it is the public
8 policy of this state to protect its citizens from the application
9 of foreign laws when the application of a foreign law will result 10 in the violation of a right guaranteed by the Constitution of this 11 state or of the United States, including, but not limited to, due 12 process, freedom of religion, speech, or press, and any right of 13 privacy or marriage as specifically defined by the Constitution of 14 this state. The Legislature fully recognizes the right to 15 contract freely under the laws of this state, and also recognizes
16 that this right may be reasonably and rationally circumscribed 17 pursuant to the state's interest to protect and promote rights and 18 privileges granted under the United States or Mississippi
19 Constitution, including, but not limited to, due process, freedom

20 of religion, speech, or press, and any right of privacy or 21 marriage as specifically defined by the Constitution and laws of 22 this state.

23 SECTION 2. The following words and phrases shall have the 24 meanings ascribed herein, unless the context clearly indicates 25 otherwise:

26 (a) "Foreign law, legal code, or system" means any law,
27 legal code, or system of a jurisdiction outside of any state or 28 territory of the United States, including, but not limited to,
29 international organizations and tribunals, and applied by that 30 jurisdiction's courts, administrative bodies, or other formal or 31 informal tribunals. For the purposes of this act, foreign law
32 shall not mean, nor shall it include, any laws of the Native
33 American tribes in this state.

34 (b) "Court" means any court, board, administrative 35 agency, or other adjudicative or enforcement authority of this 36 state.

37 (c) "Religious organization" means any church,
38 seminary, synagogue, temple, mosque, religious order, religious 39 corporation, association, or society, whose identity is 40 distinctive in terms of common religious creed, beliefs,
41 doctrines, practices, or rituals, of any faith or denomination,
42 including any organization qualifying as a church or religious 43 organization under Section 501(c)(3) or 501(d) of the United 44 States Internal Revenue Code.

45 SECTION 2. Any court, arbitration, tribunal, or 46 administrative agency ruling or decision which violates the public 47 policy of this state shall be void and unenforceable if the court,
48 arbitration, tribunal, or administrative agency bases its rulings
49 or decisions in the matter at issue, in whole or in part, on any 50 law, legal code or system that would not grant the parties
51 affected by the ruling or decision the same fundamental liberties,
52 rights, and privileges granted under the United States and
53 Mississippi Constitutions, including, but not limited to, due
54 process, freedom of religion, speech, or press, and any right of 55 privacy or marriage as specifically defined by the Constitution of 56 this state.

57 SECTION 3. A contract or contractual provision (if capable 58 of segregation) which provides for the choice of a law, legal code 59 or system to govern some or all of the disputes between the 60 parties adjudicated by a court of law or by an arbitration panel
61 arising from the contract mutually agreed upon violates the public 62 policy of this state and shall be void and unenforceable if the 63 law, legal code or system chosen includes or incorporates any 64 substantive or procedural law, as applied to the dispute at issue,
65 that would not grant the parties the same fundamental liberties,
66 rights, and privileges granted under the United States and
67 Mississippi Constitutions, including, but not limited to, due
68 process, freedom of religion, speech, or press, and any right of

69 privacy or marriage as specifically defined by the Constitution of 70 this state.

71 SECTION 4. (1) A contract or contractual provision (if 72 capable of segregation) which provides for a jurisdiction for 73 purposes of granting the courts or arbitration panels in personam 74 jurisdiction over the parties to adjudicate any disputes between 75 parties arising from the contract mutually agreed upon violates 76 the public policy of this state and shall be void and 77 unenforceable if the jurisdiction chosen includes any law, legal 78 code or system, as applied to the dispute at issue, that would not 79 grant the parties the same fundamental liberties, rights, and 80 privileges granted under the United States and Mississippi
81 Constitutions, including, but not limited to, due process, freedom
82 of religion, speech, or press, and any right of privacy or 83 marriage as specifically defined by the Constitution of this
84 state.

85 (2) If a resident of this state, subject to personal 86 jurisdiction in this state, seeks to maintain litigation,
87 arbitration, agency or similarly binding proceedings in this state 88 and if the courts of this state find that granting a claim of 89 forum non conveniens or a related claim violates or would likely 90 violate the fundamental liberties, rights, and privileges granted 91 under the United States and Mississippi Constitutions of the 92 nonclaimant in the foreign forum with respect to the matter in

93 dispute, then it is the public policy of this state that the claim
94 shall be denied.

95 SECTION 5. Without prejudice to any legal right, this act
96 shall not apply to a corporation, partnership, limited liability
97 company, business association, or other legal entity that 98 contracts to subject itself to foreign law in a jurisdiction other
99 than this state or the United States.

100 SECTION 6. No court or arbitrator shall interpret this act
101 to limit the right of any person to the free exercise of religion
102 as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States
103 Constitution and by the Constitution of this state. No court 104 shall interpret this act to require or authorize any court to 105 adjudicate or prohibit any religious organization from 106 adjudicating ecclesiastical matters, including, but not limited
107 to, the election, appointment, calling, discipline, dismissal,
108 removal or excommunication of a member, officer, official, priest, 109 nun, monk, pastor, rabbi, imam or member of the clergy, of the 110 religious organization, or determination or interpretation of the 111 doctrine of the religious organization, where adjudication by a 112 court would violate the prohibition of the establishment clause of 113 the First Amendment of the United States or violate the 114 Constitution of this state.

115 SECTION 7. This act shall not be interpreted by any court to 116 conflict with any federal treaty or other international agreement
117 to which the United States is a party to the extent that such

118 treaty or international agreement preempts or is superior to state
119 law on the matter at issue.

120 SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from 121 and after July 1, 2015.
